The trouble is that when one furnishes the newspaper with something that he thinks is funny he can't do the thinking for the readers. Lunaford, L.

There were several Board meetings yesterday-the Mayaville Cemetery Board met in the law office of Sallee & Slattery and the Mason County Board of Control met in their office in Front street.

The concrete pavement put down in front of the Third Street M. E. Church is a dandy. Now if an epidemic in the way of putting down good and uniform sidewalks should set in what a blessing it would be. First-class pavements is what this city mostly needs now.

George W. Morrow of Bourbon county purchased of Joshua Owings and Will T. Phelps 209 export steers, weighing 1,480 pounds, at six cents per pound. This is the highest price paid for exporters in five years. The cattle were extra good ones. Waller Sharp sold to Lodge Hall. Charles McDonald for Schwarzchild, Sulzberger & Co., 150 export steers, weighing 1,400 pounds, at five and one-half cents. The cattle will go in August. They brought a total of $11,550.

THEATORIUM

The most sensational moving picture ever exhibited in Maysville will be seen at The Theatorium tonight - a guaranteed attraction-"Hooligans of the West." This is something fine. Try and see it, then you will be convinced that The Theatorium, using the Power's Cameragraph, always delivers the goods.
